(b. 1958)

Brenner is Boyd Professor at Louisiana State University, holding a joint appointment with the department of mathematics and Center for Computation and Technology. Brenner's research is in numerical analysis, specializing in finite element methods. She has over 100 publications, is an editor for multiple journals, has been PI on numerous NSF grants, and has mentored 9 doctoral students. Brenner received the Sonia Kovalevsky Award (2011) and the Humboldt Research Award (2005). She has been named a Fellow of SIAM (2010), AAAS (2012), AMS (2013), and AWM (2020). Brenner is President of SIAM (2021–2022). She is on the steering committee of the Women in Numerical Analysis and Scientific Computing network.

This poster is part of the EvenQuads project, which combines innovative mathematical card games with learning about amazing women mathematicians. The project celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Association for Women in Mathematics.
