

Sylvia Celedón-Pattichis (b. late 1900s)

Celedón-Pattichis grew up in Texas and Mexico. The first in her family to graduate from high school, she is full professor of mathematics education at the University of New Mexico, and Senior Associate Dean for Research and Community Engagement. Celedón-Pattichis was co-Principal Investigator of the Center for the Mathematics Education of Latinos/as (CEMELA), where she mentored dozens of doctoral and postdoctoral fellows to promote integrated knowledge in language, culture, and mathematics. She co-edited two volumes on access and equity in elementary mathematics education (published by the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics) and the book Beyond Good Teaching: Advancing Mathematics Education for ELLs (2012).

This poster is part of the EvenQuads project, which combines innovative mathematical card games with learning about amazing women mathematicians. The project celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Association for Women in Mathematics.

If you want to learn more about EvenQuads, scan the QR code below.

EVENQUADS

