Resources for Teaching Online

Many of us are working to transition our traditional classrooms to online teaching overnight as we adjust to a shifting landscape. The QUBESHub Teaching Quantitative Biology Online page has a collection of materials for teaching online. Please use this page to share your old and new favorite materials for teaching online, and asking questions about resources and online teaching ideas. Invite your colleagues to this group!

Canceled Education Project Meeting? Let us help!

With the ongoing cancellation of in-person meetings due to COVID-19 concerns, QUBES wants to gauge how best to support the community. Please take this quick survey and let us know what we can do for you.
