Digital Laboratory Framework via Canvas for LIFE courses at Colorado State University

Goal: support foundational scientific competencies and scaffolded research experiences in a 100 level introductory biology sequence for both face to face and online distribution.

Opportunities to interact with media rich content

Learning objectives clearly communicated

All lab materials available through a single accordion style page, including embedded readings, assessments, and rubrics.

Inquiry driven format includes opportunities to read and interpret literature and data.